

Suresh Sainath
General Manager

Suresh Sainath serves as General Manager of Zeus's catheter solutions division. Before joining Zeus, Sainath led and co-founded several medtech companies, including CathX Medical, which Zeus acquired in June 2021.

Under his leadership, the Zeus catheter solutions team partners with OEMs and medical device companies to deliver best-in-class catheter design, prototyping, manufacturing, and assembly services.

Demonstrated throughout his 17 years in the medical device industry, Suresh is an expert in catheter design thinking and innovation. His collaborative approach with customers leads to single-source solutions from concept to realization with unparalleled speed.
